

For Immediate Release

Tropical Audubon Society “Members Gratitude Concert”

Thanksgiving Weekend

Featuring Jazz & Folk Artist DeBlois Milledge

Saturday, November 27
Gates Open 6pm, Concert Begins 7pm
5530 Sunset Drive, Miami, FL 33143

MIAMI, Fla. — It's with enduring gratitude and heightened anticipation that Tropical Audubon Society will open our hearts and gates on Saturday, November 27, to our treasured members, who are invited to a complimentary “Members Gratitude Concert” featuring homegrown singer-songwriter DeBlois Milledge. Her intimate concert will mark the return of live events to our 2.2-acre near-native Steinberg Nature Center campus after a 21-month COVID hiatus. The Coral Gables native and Tropical Audubon Society board member is critically acclaimed for her significant repertoire of Jazz- and Folk-inspired originals infused with her authentic “soul meets song” storytelling that also reflects her conservation ethos.

Attendees can pack a picnic or order Take-out/Delivery from our neighboring Community Partner restaurants (Whisk Gourmet, Sports Grill, Spris and Gringo's). Wash it all down with refreshing wines and brews at the RNDC donation Bird Bar (masks must be worn while ordering).

Don't miss out on this wonderful evening of song and renewal!

For Tickets visit: <https://support.tropicalaudubon.org/a/members-gratitude-concert>

Proceeds support Tropical Audubon Society's Mission: “Conserve and restore South Florida ecosystems, focusing on birds, other wildlife and their habitats.”>>

Concert, page 2 of 2

Ticket & Guest Information

The singular “Members Gratitude Concert” is open exclusively to TAS members in good standing, and anyone who joins our conservation society on or before November 27. Not a member or has your membership lapsed? JOIN NOW or RENEW!

Not sure about your Membership status? Email membership@tropicalaudubon.org and we'll check our records for you.

We ask that attendees be vaccinated and maintain social distancing protocols.

Attendees will be required to pack out their garbage; recycle containers will be provided for bottles and cans only.

Gates open at 6pm; music begins at 7. Picnic tables available on a first-come basis.

Parking: Limited free parking via our 55th Avenue auto gate and along 56th Avenue; metered parking on Sunset Drive; various garage and valet parking options within 1-3 blocks; Metro-rail service to South Miami Station.

For Tickets visit: <https://support.tropicalaudubon.org/a/members-gratitude-concert>

For media inquiries, contact:

Ana Lima at communications@tropicalaudubon.org